Scrap Collection In Lawrence Co. Makes Record

May Have Established Per Capita Record For Nation, Says Chairman

TOTAL OF 24,307
TONS COLLECTED

Lawrence Apparently Takes Lead For Counties Of State In Drive

With the scrap collection totals not entirely in, Lawrence County looks to have established a national record for per capita collection. Ross D. Rosenberg, Salvage Chairman of the Lawrence County Council of Defense announced today that the county had collected the amazing total of 24,307 tons of metal scrap. This represents 48,614,000 pounds or an average of 507 pounds per person.

Up until Lawrence County's total was announced, Bradford County was away out in front with a per capita average of 230 pounds. A few eastern counties had piled up an average of over 100 pounds per capita but Lawrence County's total and average certainly is a state record and probably the record for the United States.

Unlooked For Success

The success of the drive has the salvage committee almost speechless with delight. It represents the most outstanding civic achievement here in a long time and best of all it will get steel scrap to the furnaces for war materials. The time limit of the drive has been extended.

The flag which now flutters from the flagstaff at Central fire station looks like a relic of the Civil war, having been badly frayed by the whipping in the breeze. A new flag is sadly needed.

Two New Battleships Join British Navy

(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 21.—An admiralty announcement today disclosed that Britain's new 35,000-ton battleships Anson and Howe have joined the British navy.

The Anson, it was revealed, already has participated in an engagement with enemy aircraft while protecting a convoy in the north Atlantic.

Commissioning of the ships, the naval expert of the Daily Telegraph said, "brings within the realm of feasibility operations which the navy long has been anxious to conduct in at least two theaters."

He pointed out that the threat of Allied sea strength by the giant Nazi battleship Tirpitz, based in Norway, now "assumes a different proportion."

An Axis ship was believed to have been hit when medium and heavy bombers carried out a night raid on Tobruk, the Libyan supply port.

Many bombs were dropped on smaller vessels nearby, it was said. Sollum, Sidi Barrani and Mersa Matruh also were attacked. One enemy transport was the target of the Matruh raid.

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Oct. 21.—Arrangements leading to the acquisition of the $3,000,000 Butler sanatorium by the federal government are expected to be concluded today, according to Gov. Arthur H. James.

Governor James told reporters yesterday that "we are hoping to clear up this Butler situation either today or tomorrow."

Conferences have been held between the commonwealth and the U. S. army since March in an effort to reach "satisfactory arrangements" for the transfer of the sanatorium.

The state institution was completed in 1933 as a tuberculosis sanatorium but was never used. The army plans to convert it into a hospital for convalescent soldiers, leasing the institution from the General State Authority, which constructed it, for an annual rental of $160,000.

Italian Planes Attempt Attack Upon Gibraltar

(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 21.—Italian aircraft attempted an attack last night against the British base of Gibraltar but their bombs were wide of the mark, fell on Spanish territory and caused casualties among Spaniards, Reuters' news agency reported today.

A few Italian planes flew over the Mediterranean fortress but no bombs fell on Gibraltar.

The raiders were driven off by anti-aircraft but not before they dropped bombs on Spanish soil, causing damage and inflicting casualties.

First word of the attempted attack on Gibraltar came from the German radio which quoted a dispatch from La Linea, Spain. The Nazi version was that pieces of anti-aircraft shells fell on Spanish territory and injured 15 persons of a crowd which formed to watch the action.

Says Solomons Battle Is Now Nearing Crisis

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 21.—The battle of the Solomons has reached a crisis, with the Japanese making an extreme effort to capture the American-held Henderson airfield on Guadalcanal Island, an authoritative British spokesman said today.

There is more than a face-saving desire on the part of the Japanese in seeking to regain lost positions in the south Pacific, the spokesman pointed out.

The ferocity of the Japanese counter-assault, he said, shows the strategic importance placed on the Solomons by the Japs.

The aim of the strongpoints held by the United Nations to maintain communications through the south Pacific should be neutralized. As long as the sea route from America is held by the Allies the Japanese fleet is greatly menaced, he added.

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Absence of Japan's plane-carriers from the current Solomons' battle raised the possibility today that the enemy may be preparing a surprise sea-air striking force for a new attempt to knock out America's Guadalcanal airport.

Even the lull in enemy ground activity on Guadalcanal and the brazen concentration of warships and transports in the northern Solomons was interpreted by navy men as an indication that the Japs may be awaiting such a thrust as the signal for an all-out attack.

Vulnerability of carriers to attacks by land-based planes undoubtedly accounts for the absence of these enemy units in the present fight, but Japan may be forced to risk them to obtain control of the air.

Mrs. MacDonald Weaver Gives Education Program For Clubs

Mrs. MacDonald Weaver, of Washington, Pa., education chairman for the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's clubs, addressed the meeting of the Lawrence County Federation Tuesday afternoon at The Castleton Hotel. She outlined a 4-point program of education that she is suggesting to women's clubs of the state.

Introduced by Mrs. Lucien Black, education department chairman of the county, Mrs. Weaver stated that we have found a deficiency in our pre-war school system, where an effort is now being made to meet war needs by gearing the programs to fit children to live under war conditions.

In the effort to win the war and to win the peace, children must be prepared, morally, mentally, physically, and spiritually. Adaptation of the educational program is necessary if we believe that education is training for efficient living and that efficient living in peacetime differs from efficient living in wartime.

"Somehow," she said, "our children must develop an attitude of devotion to democratic principles." Pertinent to this, the speaker questioned whether the studies of economics, geography, American history, and government, in our schools have been neglected.

In dealing with her first point, which was the study of historical backgrounds, including that of Pennsylvania and of World War I, Mrs. Weaver announced an educational program on "The United States—Its Allies and Enemies," which is being given by Dr. Bernadotte Everly Schmitt, of the University of Chicago, and Dr. Albert Henry Sweet, of Washington and Jefferson College, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 2 to 3 o'clock over the local radio station.

Study to promote friendly relations with other countries of America and stimulation of interest in library services were two other channels which the state chairman suggested in the program which she outlined.

Mrs. Robert Barlow, of Ellwood City, first vice-president of the county federation presided at the business meeting, during which reports of department and committee chairmen were given and Mrs. Audley Snyder, president of Bessemer Women's club, gave a detailed report of the southwestern district meeting which was recently held in Pittsburgh.

A motion was passed that the county federation request the city and county school authorities to install an adequate physical training course in junior and senior high schools for girls and boys to meet the needs of the times.

Numa Vidal spoke in the interest of the office of civilian defense and requested women volunteers for air raid wardens, nurses aides, drives to deliver messages, and telephone service volunteers for morning duty at the control center.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Arthur Vincent, of Slippery Rock, president of the southwestern district, spoke briefly.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILD CAN BE TAUGHT TO WRITE WELL

The handwriting of some children is a matter of complaint from the teacher by the time the child is in the fifth or sixth grade. A page on which he writes may look terrible. Though it annoys his teacher we should remember it is also very discouraging of the student. He may suppose, indeed, he will never write better.

Ugly and illegible handwriting penalizes the grades on written work of many a student even in high school and college. Several years ago, an experiment at one university revealed that when a composition written in a poor hand was submitted later, without change of content but copied by a good penman, to the same teacher, without his recognizing it as the same paper, it was graded higher by the teacher.

How Parent Can Help
Of course, ugly handwriting which requires effort to read naturally does not stir up favorable feelings in the teacher who must read so many papers.

Don't make fun of the ugly writing nor condemn it. Induce the child at home to practice writing for 10 minutes daily. Let him write with a pencil or fountain pen on paper that is good for ink. Give him paper that is lined. For some practice there should be a heavy base line with two light lines above it for two main heights, as of m or t. Make, or have made for him, a very neat copy, first of separate letters, later of words or a sentence. Make this sample on a cardboard slip for him to keep always directly above the line he is writing.

Encourage Careful Work
Don't bother him about any "standard" sort of hand movement. Just encourage him to write slowly, carefully, neatly. If he holds the pen very tightly suggest to him he relax his grasp. Most of all, try to get him to write very slowly. Have him date each practice page and keep it in a scrapbook in sequence so he can see his gradual improvement from day to day. When he does written homework, encourage him to be neat and careful. Show him how to line up his margins even drawing light pencil lines (which can be erased) to help him. Readily spell any word for him he asks you to spell.

Solving Parent Problems
Q. My girl, 10, has no trouble with "abstract work" in arithmetic but falls down on verbal (reading) problems.
A. She probably is a poor reader or does not take time to read the problem carefully before attempting its solution. In either event, create a calm, hopeful atmosphere for her, helping her to proceed slowly and carefully.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)
RICH HILL—Alf M. Landon, 1936 Republican presidential nominee assails Washington bureaucrats: "The petty and tyrannical habits of shopworn bureaucrats impede the work of those brave and patriotic soldiers and sailors who are making the great sacrifice in order to save their country."

LONDON—Jan Masaryk, foreign minister of the Czech government in London: "Hitler's conception of the German Reich will be destroyed. The Germans know they cannot win the greatest war. It has been shown that the airplanes will win the war. We should give air power command over the army and navy."

WASHINGTON—Senator Josh Lee demands a United American command: "This war has shown beyond a doubt that air power is the greatest weapon. It has been shown that the airplanes will win the war. We should give air power command over the army and navy."

WASHINGTON—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg asks an amendment to the constitution to permit 18-year-old citizens to vote: "Since we are going to draft the boys 18 and 19 years old to fight for their country, we ought to give them the right to vote."

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN
(International News Service Staff Writer)
FLASH—OWI finds some U. S. fighting planes good, some bad.

FLASH—that isn't telling the enemy anything he doesn't know.

FLASH—Now we can stop expecting miracles.

The OWI's plane report was the biggest burst of frankness since the Siamese twins admitted they were brothers.

Our planes have been overrated by some experts and underrated by some others. The OWI just rated them.

There is no use telling a woman in tight shoes that her feet look pretty.

The OWI admitted that some U. S. planes have faults. More important, it said that the faults were being corrected.

That is as right as a square hat on a square hat rack.

We cannot be stirred into an argument when the truth is on both sides.

In the event of frankness we leave our umbrella of doubt at home.

Thought for the day: The truth feels good even when it hurts.

What became of the old-fashioned apron that was apron, pot-lifter, dust cloth and handkerchief?

We cannot be stirred into an argument when the truth is on both sides.

AFTER HAVING HIS EAR TRUMPET CONSTANTLY IN PLACE ALL ALONG SO AS NOT TO MISS THE AIR RAID SIREN GRANPAW SIMS FAILED TO HEAR IT!

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 6:13. Sun rises tomorrow 7:18.

Now flying automobiles are predicted to fly both on land and sea. So far quite a few have about been flying on land.

It will take a mighty loud raid siren to drown out the noises we heard about all the time we could get along without.

Neurotic: Anybody who thinks you mean it when you ask how he is.

It always has been manpower heretofore and now we will have to also call it womanpower.

Teacher—If there were Mr. Jones, Mrs. Jones and the baby, how many were there? Johnny—There were two and one to carry.

Happiness is a perfume you cannot pass on to others without getting a few drops on yourself.

To help the war effort, everybody is telling the customer how to get more out of what he owns and buys. Here's something I never saw in print before.

This man is a Yankee. As he left the luncheon table, a friend said of him that he was so tight that he let the unused father cling to his shaving brush, thereby saving a few particles of soap for the next shave.

At dinner I mentioned this bit of economy to two well-heeled gentlemen, expecting a smile. Both looked grim. One said he had always followed this practice; the other said he intended to inaugurate it immediately.

TRICK

"Com-pa-nee, atten-shun!" bawled the drill sergeant to the awkward squad. "Com-pa-nee, life up your left leg and hold it straight in front of you!"

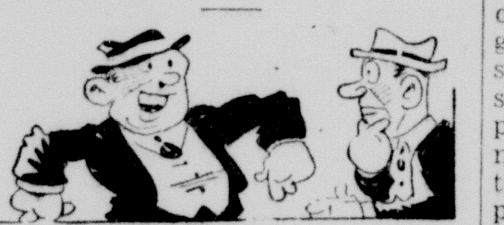

By mistake, one rookie held up his right leg, which brought it out next to his neighbor's left leg.

"Aw right, aw right; who's the wise guy over there holding up both legs?" shouted the hard-boiled sergeant.

We can finish the big job ahead of schedule if we work and pull together.

People remember a man's follies long after his good deeds are forgotten.

Be prepared for bombs in your vicinity and know what you are expected to do.

Chronic complainers live longer. The robust fellows think nothing can hurt them and won't take precautions.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

They were having one of those dandy marital arguments (fights, to you) and the little pal was getting to the tearful stage.

"How can you talk to me like that," she wailed, "after I've given you the best years of my life?"

"Yeah?" returned the husband, unimpressed by her emotion. "And who made 'em the best years of your life?"

Does that 2½ pound meat ration include any bone? If so, you can feed your dog part of your ration and never miss it.

It is well to be content with what we have—not with what we are.

You can't think on a low level and live on a high plane.

Only apes and humans catch colds.

We heartily agree in the thought that who he receives a benefit should never forget it, while he who bestows it should never remember it.

Miss Markel will promptly mail personal answers to questions from any reader stamped self-addressed 3-cent stamped envelope.

BONE INCREASE

Teacher: "Smith, how many bones have you in your body?"
Pupil: "I don't know, sir."
Teacher: "But you were told yesterday."
Pupil: "Yes, sir, but I had fish for breakfast this morning."

It used to be one could tell if it was raining by looking out of a window. Can't now, as few people carry umbrellas.

War factories are located far from New York for two reasons: to avoid bombers, and to avoid labor troubles.

GIRL ASKS BOYS FOR DATES

"I have a chum who calls boys on the telephone suggesting dates. She thinks I am silly not to try her technique which she says always works and that as a result of which she never has a dull moment. She says that girls of today go after the boys they want . . . that the idea of sitting back waiting to be pursued is outmoded folderol. Am I hopelessly old-fashioned in disagreeing with her?"—Midge.

Answered: I think you are right and she is wrong! Every man likes girls who are hard to get. The girl who openly pursues a man may, in a weak moment, drag him to the altar; but her married life will be one of constant worry. He, whose resistance is temporarily broken down will, after his altar-trek, realize that he was tricked.

The freedom of today allows a woman privileges in the love race, but there are limitations. She may invite a man to any kind of party—occasionally to the theatre or to a game, if she has the tickets, but she should not let him think that she has bought the tickets for the particular purpose of taking him, nor should she suggest that he buy the tickets. She must never telephone him to ask why he has been neglecting her, suggesting that he call on her. And when he brings her home from a "date" she should let him suggest a subsequent meeting.

Question: My mother and father have been separated, but not legally, for years. I live with my mother, but see my father occasionally. Should my mother alone announce my marriage, or should both announce it?—Sally.

Answer: Inasmuch as there have been no legal entanglements in your mother's and father's situation, they may both announce your marriage, if your mother's feelings toward your father are not too bitter to permit such a circumstance. If, on the contrary, this idea might prove distasteful to your mother, she may then announce your marriage without adding her husband's name. When a bride's parents are divorced, the one with whom she makes her home should announce her marriage.

Willkie Credited With New Move In China
Extra-Territorial Rights Are Abandoned
Chinese Are Pleased By The Announcement

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central News Columnist
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—Wendell Willkie gets the credit for Uncle Sam's abandonment of America's extra-territorial rights in China. Presumably he's entitled to it. While he was in Chungking recently, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is said to have mentioned to him that the Chinese would consider it a friendly act. Wendell passed the hint on to Washington and the state department (for extra-territoriality, where it exists, is a diplomatic, treaty-arranged institution) promptly acquiesced.

It unquestionably pleased those of the Chinese who are sufficiently informed to know anything about the matter, and was a very commendable policy to be adopted. However, most Occidentally-published accounts of the transaction go on an altogether wrong assumption.

The popular theory evidently is that the strong and more or less modern western nations forced the extra-territorial arrangements upon the back numbered eastern ones because the former refused to permit their visiting citizens to be subjected to the east's barbarous systems of so-called law and justice.

The fact is that in many, if not all instances, it was the native government which declined to be bothered by a lot of resident foreigners' squabbles and miscellaneous litigations.

China's olden time Peking imperial regime took just this position.

Shanghai a Toehold

Back in the days when Yankees, among other Occidentals, were trying to establish premises as traders on the eastern Asiatic coast, they appealed repeatedly to the Peking authorities for what subsequently was described as a "treaty port" here and there, from which to operate into the interior.

Finally the Peking folk agreed to let 'em have Shanghai, as a toehold.

The foreigners subsequently transformed it into a big city, but it was an insignificant little burg then, illustrative of the low rating placed by Peking upon "foreign devils."

Said the Peking aggregation: "We'll accord a little territorial 'concession' each about the size of a yard in an American municipality."

So that's how extra-territoriality got started in China. Ditto Turkey and some other places.

But to return to China.

Shanghai was the system's focal point, being its vital Chinese center.

An Independent City

The U. S. and most of the European bunch presently semi-federated their concessions as the "foreign city." It was as independent of China as a hog on ice. France, indeed, remained segregated, maintaining what was known (and walled in) as the "French city."

The rest of 'em, though, combined on a kind of a municipal basis.

Yet that was an issue of policing mainly. If an American you went

Somewhere on the Pacific is a sailor with the fleet

Who used to play with marbles right along this very street.

Somewhere on the Pacific is a little chap I knew

Who is now the turret gunner of a flying fortress crew.

Somewhere on the Pacific—that is all they let him say—

Is a lad who caddied for me when at golf I went to play.

The word came in this morning that a youngster I have known

Now is stationed at New Zealand—as a soldier fully grown.

These are boys of our acquaintance, where the gunfire fiercest flames.

These are sons of friends and neighbors, theirs are all familiar names.

Oh, the war draws close and closer, and there's no spot now so far

But the boys who played about us, all, at battle stations are!

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Diphtheria can and must be "wiped out."

It can be prevented through immunization.

Every baby, between 6 and 9 months of age, should be immunized.

There is no need for any child to have diphtheria.

The disease is especially dangerous to young children.

Almost half the cases are among children under 6 years of age.

Seventy per cent of diphtheria deaths occur in this age group.

Diphtheria usually begins with a sore throat.

Mothers may not know when the baby has a sore throat.

Usually fever and difficulty in swallowing occur.

Diphtheria may develop in the nose.

Toxin-antitoxin will make 96 per cent of children immune.

The World and the Mud Puddles

JAPAN'S AMBITION

This war we are now fighting is not just a conflict resulting from some sudden impulse in which a nation lost its temper and decided to fight somebody.

It is the result of decades of plotting for world control. Neither is it confined to the ambitions of the upstart Adolf Hitler with his German backing. It includes an even more sinister threat from the oriental empire of Japan, and as we are fighting it might be well not to forget that had not Japan decided to start action, the conquering of Hitler and all his German hordes would have been an easier undertaking.

At least four nationalities have been preparing for ten years and more to throw their armies into the field for the purpose of taking over and ruling the world. Russia and Communism have been working at it for almost twenty-five years. Mussolini plotted and planned for restoring the glory of the worldwide Roman Empire, and Germany and the German people, Teutons and Huns, have entertained visions for centuries when they, the super people would conquer and rule the world.

The country, however, that no one seemed to take seriously, has been the cunning, crafty and cunning sons of the Rising Son of Japan, who for many decades, have had the same plan in mind.

They are inspired not only by their own egotism and ideas of superiority, but they imagine themselves destined by some divine authority to assume control of the world and all its inhabitants, to civilize the rebellious races and spiritualize them as slaves under the heavenly guidance of their gods of whom their emperor is the personal representative.

The United States of America has always been a thorn in their flesh. The subjugation of America has been their super unsolved problem. The conquest of China was to be their first step toward world domination. With five hundred million Chinese as their slaves to supply their needs was to be the starter. The placating of Russia under some form or other was to come next. But the real plum they coveted most was America, both North and South. They figured North and South America could support two billion white slaves who would become the producers and the fighting warriors for the fifty-five million Japanese world rulers.

Just to give you an idea of what

LOOKING AT LIFE

—By Erich Brandeis

The Overseer of the Poor of a small community in New Jersey found out (through the kindness of neighbors) that an old widow, who received $25.00 a month relief money, was keeping sixteen dogs and two cats in her little home.

He investigated and, with the help of the police, discovered a purse with $751 in cash, five diamond rings, two gold stickpins and two wrist watches.

So they sent the woman to the Psychopathic Ward of the County Hospital and had her examined for sanity.

She was pronounced "sane but slightly eccentric."

On her return home she was interviewed by reporters.

She was lonesome, she said, and her pets were the only beings that gave her love and affection.

Her husband had died. Her children had moved away, she told the reporters.

She was hungry for love—to give love and to be loved.

"What is there to live for when you haven't any love?" she asked.

She admitted that she had a bit of money and a few trinkets.

"Supposing something happens," she said, "I can't ask the authorities to take care of any of my pets if they should get sick. Is it my crime if I put away something for a rainy day?"

It seems to me that there's only one thing the matter with this old lady—she is human.

There is nothing so empty as a loveless life.

There is nothing so desolate as loneliness.

To wake up in the morning, to go to bed at night, alone, useless to anyone, not wanted, no indeed—that is hell on earth.

Authorities cannot, of course, catalogue Love. There is no room for it on charts and on the official books.

The Longing for Love has no official standing.

But I have a suspicion—and the hope—that there is a line for it in the Golden Book in which every human's life is recorded.

Words Of Wisdom

Every day of my life makes me feel more and more how seldom a fact is accurately stated; how almost invariably when a story has passed through the mind of a third person it becomes, so far as regards the impression that it makes in further repetitions, little better than a falsehood; and this, too, though the narrator be the most truth-seeking person in existence.—Hawthorne.

Hints On Etiquette

Don't be "bossy" or insist that you always are right in an argument. You may be wrong, you know, and anyway the person you are arguing with has as much right to an opinion as you have. Be courteous.

George Moore Is Given Surprise By Legion Band

Popular Director Of Legion
Band, Soon To Enter Service,
Given Wrist Watch

George D. Moore, popular director of the American Legion band, was given a pleasant surprise, Tuesday evening, at the Legion home, when members of the Perry S. Gaston Post and the band, gathered in the home to honor him before his departure for military service.

Moore was escorted to the home, where a few minutes later, the band appeared and serenaded him, after which the group, augmented by the parents of some of the band boys, presented a program, in the assembly room.

Fred C. Duff, the new post commander presided as chairman, and after a number by the band, introduced the speakers, which included Clarence S. Jarrett, retiring post commander, Nick Speed, Frank Norris, Willie E. Patton, Earl Moffatt, Andrew Gavroy, and Evan Evans, representing the post, band committee, parents, and business associates.

In conclusion, Mr. Moore was presented with a handsome wrist watch by Joe Dean, in behalf of the band.

Special musical numbers were rendered during the evening by John Buonpane, and Vincent Donati, in addition to the band.

Lunch was served at the close of the evening's program.

Mr. Moore, who recently re-enlisted in the armed forces, expects to leave soon for duty, having been assigned to the Ordnance department with his former rank of sergeant. Moore is a veteran of World war one.

Applications Are Mailed To Fleet Truck Operators

The mailing of applications to fleet operators has been completed throughout the five counties coming under the 13th district of region 4 at Youngstown, O., and comprises Trumbull, Mahoning and Columbiana counties in Ohio, and Lawrence and Mercer counties in Pennsylvania. Harry G. Boyd, district manager, motor transport division, Office of Defense Transportation, 907 Union National Bank building, Youngstown, O., advises that in order to avoid serious inconvenience in not having your certificate of war necessity on the effective date of November 15, it is imperative that everyone concentrate to this end by seeing that as little delay as possible be followed in returning your application to the central mailing office at Detroit. It is now obvious to us that it will be impossible to have these certificates in the hands of all carriers by that date unless they concentrate upon the proper execution and return of the applications within the ten-day period after receipt.

While our personnel is limited at this time, we will lend any support possible to any groups that feel they need our services in bringing about any clarification that will expedite the proper preparation and filing of these applications, and inquiries should be directed to his office, 907 Union National Bank building, Youngstown, O. Groups wishing attendance of a representative of this office should bear in mind that only such questions that pertain to the clarification and will expedite the filing of these applications should be considered, and not a general discussion of the order as a whole. Remember, your first job is to get to us your application properly prepared and at the earliest possible date.

Holland Is Raided By Allied Planes

Seek Destruction Of German Communications, Rail, Sea, Canal Traffic

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Allied fighter planes destroyed 19 railway engines, seven tugboats and hit numerous barges and trucks in daylight sweeps over Holland last week, the British air ministry announced Tuesday.

The principal object of the raids, which carried the pilots almost as far as the German border, was "destruction of and interference with German communications, including railways, roads and waterborne traffic by sea and canal," the air ministry said.

The attacks apparently marked the opening of a drive to disrupt German communications in the Netherlands, about which the Netherlands government in London warned the Dutch population in broadcasts yesterday and Sunday. The broadcasts urged the people to try to avoid transport centers.

ACCIDENT KILLS DRAVO EMPLOYEE

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—Charles G. Lucas, 43, of Diamond, O., a Dravo Construction company employee, was killed Tuesday by a pipe on a hoisting machine in the power house of Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation's Edgar Thomson works in North Braddock, the coroner's office reported.

Weapons, Tanks Are Better Than Nazis'

Ordnance Chief Declares Army, Automotive Engineers Keep U. S. In Lead

DETROIT, Oct. 21.—The ideas of army engineers and automotive engineers are keeping the United States ahead of Germany in weapons and combat vehicles, Maj. Gen. Levin H. Campbell Jr., chief of U. S. Army Ordnance, declared Tuesday and he added that there will be adequate equipment for an army of 7,500,000 men.

At the same time, Campbell said the war production board is ironing out production kinks due to material shortages and that within the next 90 days "we will have an entirely different picture."

Speaking at the opening of the new tank-automotive center, Campbell said: "The nation is ahead of schedule in the matter of producing tanks. He warned that the tank construction program may slow down because of emphasis on aircraft manufacture. Such a slowdown, he added, would be only temporary.

Victor Mature To Enlist In Week

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21.—Released by the Coast Guard, film actor Victor Mature told studio officials on Tuesday he would enlist in some branch of the military service before October 27, the date set by his draft board for his induction into the army.

The 27-year-old "beautiful hunk of man" was dropped from the Coast Guard Monday on orders from state selective service headquarters which ruled that Mature's serving in the Coast Guard temporary reserve did not constitute military service.

"Mature's isn't an isolated case," Commander Albert G. Berry Jr., chief of the local selective service, stated. "There are hundreds of others, and we're going to check them all."

ASKS FOR PROBE IN PUERTO RICO

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Senator Chavez (D., N. M.), introduced a resolution in the Senate Tuesday calling for a sweeping investigation of economic and social conditions in Puerto Rico. The resolution was prompted by the severe blow dealt Puerto Rico through interruption of normal flow of trade with the United States.

WPB Rules For Wartime Menus

Restaurants Given Hints On Carrying Out Share-The-Meat Program

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Restaurants throughout the country today have a wartime bill of fare suggested by the WPB to help them carry out the voluntary share-the-meat program.

The eating places were asked to: Serve half-portion of meat dishes at reduced prices. Display table cards, menu stickers or wall placards summarizing the main points of the share-the-meat program and soliciting the cooperation of the patrons.

Point out to patrons the approximate weight of uncooked restricted meat in each standard dish to help them stay within their individual shares.

Reduce the number of dishes of restricted meats served each day. Avoid emphasizing on the menu, or restricted meat dishes.

Serve only one restricted meat to a patron at any one meal. Provide more poultry and fish dishes, and those made from meat alternates such as cheese, beans and eggs.

Consumers have been asked to limit themselves to two and a half pounds of beef, veal, lamb, mutton or pork per person per week until the regular rationing of the meats becomes effective sometime in January.

Ask Allocation Of Uniform Contracts

Sidney Hillman Presents Plan To Correct "Unfair" Distribution, Discrimination

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Sidney Hillman, labor adviser to President Roosevelt, laid before the chief executive on Tuesday a program for equitable allocation of clothing contracts for the armed services to correct what he charged was "unfair" distribution of such orders.

Hillman, following his conference with the president, declared that Chicago, Rochester and New York, major clothing industry centers, were "definitely discriminated against in allocation of contracts on a recent order for 190,000 officers uniforms."

On this particular order, Hillman said, one community with only one per cent of the industry's facilities received 33 per cent of the contract.

ADMIRAL STANDLEY
BACK FROM RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Admiral William H. Standley, American ambassador to Russia, arrived in Washington Tuesday to report to President Roosevelt.

There were no arrangements for Standley to see the President Tuesday, but it was expected he would make his report at the White House within a day or two.

SHENANGO CHINA

You are likely to find Shenango china in any part of the world, but David O. Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Davies of East Washington street seems to have found a piece in the oddest place of all. The story is told by his sister, Mrs. Evelyn McKibben, who is the telephone operator in the court house.

Young Davies is in the Marines and writes from a spot thought to be Guadalcanal. He tells of the rains in the jungle, and of "super excitement." He goes on to relate that he took a hike up a mountain side sometime before the letter was written and came upon a native hut. The natives are primitive beings, wear few clothes and live in a primitive fashion.

On the table in the native hut he noticed a cup, and like most New Castle people, who are away from home, turned up the cup to see where it was manufactured. The label read "Shenango China." New Castle, Pa. In his letter Davies that was.

Davies also writes that he had a dream about a boy he used to play with, a lad named Izzy. Izzy's last name is Solomon.

The rubber in a washing machine would make gas masks for three United States soldiers.

P. R. R. Hiring Women To Replace Shop Men Taken By Uncle Sam

Emphasizing the wartime abnormalities the district and nation faces was today's announcement by the Pennsylvania railroad here that women are replacing young men in the seventh ward roundhouse as they are being called to the colors.

A few are on the job down there today," Superintendent John W. Leonard of the Erie & Ashtabula division reported.

Army calls, he said, are beginning to have a telling effect on railroad personnel. In line with other roads, the Pennsylvania's policy for the duration will be to substitute women for men taken into military service.

He said the company is hiring women for clerical work for obvious reasons, but that the employment of women at the shop is the first of such practice in a mechanical or operating department.

Millions Of Tons Of Scrap Metal Collected In U. S.

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21. Scrap metal enough to build a mechanical force such as only H. G. Wells might conceive—an irresistible host of 135,000 General Grant tanks—has been collected thus far in the nation-wide salvage campaign sponsored by American newspapers.

With one of the 48 states still unreported, and with tabulations from hundreds of counties yet to be added, a total of 3,544,682 tons of metal has been contributed to date, Richard W. Sloman, general chairman of the publishers' national committee, announced today. At least as much more will be added to the nation's scrap pile before final official returns are available, the committee estimated.

Leading the nation on a per capita basis, according to the latest reports, was the state of Kansas with 129.6 pounds for every man, woman and child. Wyoming was second with 104.2 pounds per person, and Pennsylvania third with 101.2 pounds. The per capita average of the 10 leading states was 57.7 pounds per person.

SEVENTH WARD

B. And O. Fireman Recovering Nicely

C. B. Butts, of Hillcrest avenue, B. and O. railroad fireman, who was removed from the Robinson Memorial hospital, Ravenna, O., to the Jameson Memorial hospital, is getting along nicely. He sustained severe burns on his face, hands and body when his engine exploded September 13, three miles from Ravenna. James Carmichael, the engineer, who was also severely burned, now recovered, states that the explosion occurred when their train was passing through a golf course at 7:10 in the evening, and gave valuable assistance, getting the men quickly to the hospital.

Approximately 100 dairymen and distributors convened last night in city hall where they conducted an interesting discussion concerning milk because it has been indicated that the federal government soon may ration it. Dr. W. A. Womer, city health officer, was in charge.

The purpose of the meeting was to arrange for a sufficient and continued healthy supply. According to the health officer the city health bureau does not propose standing over producers and distributors with a club; instead the bureau intends to be helpful.

Among those present was E. W. Gillaspie, state milk inspector, and several local bacteriologists.

The state has certain requirements. However, according to Dr. Womer, the city "goes one better than the state," the count here being lower than that required by the state.

The minimum requirement in raw milk is 100,000 bacteria and for pasteurized milk, 50,000 bacteria. According to the health officer, there are some dairies whose raw counts are under 1000 and pasteurized under 500.

Boy Shoots Sister, Hides With Brother

Youth, 15, Kept Family Cowed With 12-Gauge Shotgun; Girl, 8, Critically Hurt

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—A 15-year-old boy, who shot and critically wounded his eight-year-old sister, roamed the nearby Patton township woods today, holding his younger brother as a possible hostage.

The youth, William Lyngvar, using an ancient 12-gauge shotgun with which he has cowed his family for weeks, finally pulled the trigger late yesterday and his little sister, Jean, fell to the floor, clutching a jagged bullet wound in her chest.

Attaches at the hospital where Jean was taken said they doubt whether she will recover. Meanwhile, county detectives and state police searched the wooded terrain in Patton township for the young assailant who came home only seven months ago after spending two years in Thorn Hill Reformatory, where he was sent in 1939 on a complaint of petty thievery and delinquency.

Wherever Bill went yesterday, he stopped first at a local school house and picked up his brother, Konrad, Jr., 13, and took him with him.

"He'd been tormenting Jean for hours," Mrs. Blanche Lyngvar, the boy's mother, told county authorities. "He'd point the gun at her and put shells in and out of it."

The night before, she added, he threatened to shoot his father, Konrad, a defense worker, because Lyngvar wanted to take the gun from him.

The shot that wounded Jean was fired while Mrs. Lyngvar was in the yard feeding the chickens and pig. She rushed back to the house to find Jean slumped over the "funny papers" in a pool of blood.

'Wake Island Avengers,' New Sailors Leave Today

Eager to get into top fighting trim, squads of new navy and marine corps volunteers left New Castle on the same train this morning for Pittsburgh and their respective service training stations.

A crowd of parents and citizens cheered as the Pennsylvania train with the new sailors and marine "Wake Island Avengers" aboard departed at 8:58 o'clock.

"Avengers" Honored
Last night the city tendered the "avengers" of the marines a brief but generous tribute in ceremonies at the Penn theater. Later the group enjoyed dinner at The Castleton.

Chief Navy Recruiter D. C. Ritchie and his officers escorted the navy men to the depot, while his two recruiting aides were in charge of the marines.

The Penn theater program brought all of the marine corps volunteers to the stage for introduction. Louis B. Round, civic leader and honorary sergeant of the marines here, spoke the farewell for the audience.

Sponsoring the theater and hotel events was the Guntery Sgt. Harry T. Burns detachment of the Marine Corps league. Representing it during the evening were Commandant Cecil F. Suber and W. Franklin Blanning, another detachment officer.

While brief and to the point, the Penn program was most impressive. The three marine corps recruiters here, Sergeants Dean, James A. Final and Thomas E. Quail, participated.

One of the "avengers"—Meyer Dodelson, 33-year-old Oil City resident, sold his dry cleaning business to help the famed Leathernecks pass a few cracks back to the Japanese, it became known today.

Navy Boys Departing
Leaving in today's navy contingent were:

Lecturer Speaks To Zionist Groups

Rabbi Frederick A. Doppelt Gives Interesting Talk At Cosmo Club, Tuesday Evening

Rabbi Doppelt, speaking here under the auspices of the Lawrence County Zionist organizations, traced the history of the Jews in Palestine from the early Biblical days to the present time. ## Price Of Nylon Hose Is Fixed

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—New prices on women's nylon hose—set by Price Chief Leon Henderson to stop "nearly every store in the country" from charging "fantastic and inflationary" prices—went into effect today.

From now on, women will not have to pay more than $1.65 a pair for the most commonly sold full-fashioned nylon stockings of first quality construction or more than $2.50 for the best made.

"Irregulars" in the full-fashioned class will sell for a top price of $1.50 and "seconds" may not be sold for more than $1.25 a pair.

Henderson said that the most commonly sold nylons have been selling for $2.50 and $2.95 and even higher in some cases.

Consumer installment debt in the United States was reduced by about $1,500,000,000 during the first six months of this year, according to the Department of Commerce.

Measles Can Cause Misery

City Health Officer Says Serum Can Be Used To Help Babies

"What is a more pitiful sight than a baby with measles?" This inquiry today was made by Dr. W. A. Womer, city health officer after which he described the condition of the babe.

"The poor little face is puffy and distorted. The eyes are red and sore. The lips are swollen. The skin is covered with a horrible rash. Talk about misery!"

"The mouth is sore and painful. There is a nagging cough. The eyes cannot stand any sight. The skin itches and burns."

The health officer then explained that "we are frightened at a case of infantile paralysis but measles causes a thousand times more trouble than it does. Thousands die of measles to one from paralysis."

"The cause of measles has not been found yet. Probably measles is catching in the first stages only. When there is a cough and a little trouble in the eyes and mouth that is the time it is catching. After the rash breaks out it is not likely to be contagious."

"The doctors have a remedy that prevents measles or else makes it very mild and harmless. If a child is exposed to measles, a few drops of blood from father or mother injected under the child's skin will protect from danger. A serum can be used also."

"If measles breaks out and you have a baby in the family, get busy with your doctor and you will avoid trouble and grief."

Gives Plan For Post War Peace

Dr. Vernon Nash Discusses "Case For Federal World Government," Last Night

SPEAKS BEFORE EXECUTIVES CLUB

Addressing members of the New Castle Executives club and their guests at the opening dinner meeting of the season in The Castleton, Tuesday evening, Dr. Vernon Nash, executive director of the National Peace Conference, discussed "The Case for a Federal World Government." Dr. Nash did not predict that his plan would be accepted, but stated that because so many people believed such a plan impossible, he felt that it had a good chance of succeeding.

President Orville Potter presided. Dr. John J. McVane gave the invocation, and the speaker was introduced by Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery. Members voted on a new addition to the board of directors last evening, and the board will name a new president before the next meeting November 24, when Gen. Henry J. Reilly will be the speaker and will discuss the conduct of the current war from a military standpoint.

The reception committee appointed for the next meeting consists of Dr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Post, Mr. and Mrs. Dale M. Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley M. Arnold.

Dr. Nash stated that in previous wars the victory was the ultimate goal, with no concern for the future peace. Unless something is done at the close of this war to promote a lasting peace, another war is certain to follow within another score of years.

Three proposals have been advanced, he stated, to promote this lasting peace. One is that we must promote world brotherliness, good will and cooperation among nations. Another proposal is that America take over the world and run it for our own good. This would result in the United States becoming just as much hated as Hitler is, he asserted. We would simply become receivers of imperial bankruptcy. The third is a world organization of governments.

The last proposal could be effected either by revamping the League of Nations, organizing a regional federation of governments, or organizing a world federation of governments.

Dr. Nash presented arguments and criticisms of the first two forms, and then turning his attention to a world federation, cited the fact that following the close of the Revolutionary war no group of states were as widely divergent in thought, race and religion as the 13 original colonies, yet they molded a government which has lasted over a period of 150 years and has been one of the miracles of the history of governments.

Such a world government, he said, must have the power to control whatever affects the safety and welfare of all nations. In our own government, each state has the right to control certain functions, exclusive of federal interference, but anything which interferes with the rights of other states or peoples comes under Federal jurisdiction.

He also cited the Swiss republic as an example of splendid government, where this tiny nation, surrounded on three sides by the French, German and Italian nations, all widely divergent in their views, has withstood the ravages of time and international intrigue.

If we do not adopt a Federal world government, we will revert to an Anglo-American empire, and empires do not prove successful, he stated.

One of the trite sayings of the past year has been that the world is in "the greatest crisis in its history," and such things drive people to pessimism. The Chinese referring to such a crisis use a word "Wa-gee" a compound word meaning "danger, opportunity." He said that when we have a time of peril, then is the best time to do something about it. We are in a molten world, one on fire, he stated in conclusion, and this is the time we can mold it into something that will withstand.

The monarch butterflies fly between 40 and 50 miles each day, and some of them travel 3000 miles to the south each autumn and return in the spring.

After being served tea and refreshments, the assemblage gathered, grouped around their guests when Mrs. Johnson was presented with the sum of $46.00 to be used toward the work of the Bundles for America.

Not only have members of the SS. Phillips-James church contributed money, but they have given untiringly of their efforts in the making over of clothing and the sewing of new garments, to be used for the wartime emergency program. They have asked for more to do, and their willingness to take on new responsibilities, never ceases. ## Withdraw Coolidge Letters From Sale

Place Correspondence In Congressional Library; Auction Cancelled

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—White House correspondence of the Coolidge administration, advertised for sale at public auction, will be placed in the Library of Congress at Washington instead, it was revealed on Tuesday.

The Parke-Bernet Galleries, a leading art and rare book auction house, had advertised the collection as "correspondence file of Edward T. Clark, private secretary to President Calvin Coolidge." The collection consisted of some 9,000 items.

The gallery withdrew the items from the auction room late Monday on orders of Charles Koken of Washington, present owner of the items, who said the papers would be turned over to the congressional library with instructions that they be sealed for a period of years.

Some items were described as "sensational" and others were said to be translations of cipher code messages. It was feared, it was reported, that some of these items might have become a valuable source of information to the Axis powers if they had fallen into enemy hands at a public auction.

Aged Stalingrad Defenders Heroic

Grandmothers Man Supply Boats On Volga Under Constant Shell Fire

(International News Service) LONDON, Oct. 21.—Grandfathers and grandmothers are playing a heroic part in the defense of Stalingrad, the Exchange Telegraph company said in a dispatch from Moscow.

Aged persons were said to be manning the oars of small boats carrying vital supplies across the Volga river under incessant shell fire from German artillery and bombs from planes of the Luftwaffe.

A group of old age pensioners, it was added, formed an auxiliary corps to act as mine spotters working along with forces of the Soviet flotilla operating on the Volga.

Star Also Means Merchant Seaman

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Admiral Emory S. Land, war shipping administrator, announced Tuesday that the service flag flown to indicate members of a household serving in the armed forces also may be used by families of merchant seamen.

"The American seaman is constantly and unselfishly struggling to preserve a free nation, and is as much a defender of liberty as any member of the armed forces of the United States," Land said.

Presbyterians To Raise War Fund

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—An appeal for an emergency fund of $1,000,000 to meet war obligations, will be read from the pulpits of Presbyterian churches in the United States Nov. 8. ## That Extra Something! ...You can spot it every time

IT TAKES something extra...a plus...to make a reputation that everybody respects. Coca-Cola got its reputation for quality, because it has always been made the quality way out of quality ingredients.

Coca-Cola is an original creation with a very special something to offer, found in no other drink...a finished art in its making...a blend of wholesome flavors that creates for Coca-Cola a taste all its own. That's why Coca-Cola has the taste that charms...and never cloy.

There are many things for thirst but only one stands out for refreshment...ice-cold Coca-Cola. The only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola, itself.

War-time limits the supply of Coca-Cola. Those times when you cannot get it, remember: Coke, being first choice, sells out first. Ask for it each time. No matter how short the supply, the quality of Coca-Cola carries on.

Will Denaturalize Nazi Sympathizers

Mathias Correa Reveals Large Plan To Eradicate Bund And "Cancerous Offshoots"

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Immediate steps to renaturalize hundreds of German-Americans of known Nazi sympathies, including Fritz Kuhn, former national bund leader, were announced Tuesday by U. S. Attorney Mathias F. Correa.

Hailing the conviction on Monday of 24 prominent German-American bundists on charges of conspiracy to violate the selective service act, Correa declared:

"Our principal object is to render unavailable to our enemies a nationwide network of Nazi sympathizers which the German government counted on using in a campaign directed against our national security."

Correa's nation wide crusade to stamp out the bund has led to the questioning of over 1,500 witnesses. Kuhn, nationwide head of the bund during the heyday of its subversive activities, is now serving a prison term for embezzling bund funds.

"Within the next two months," said Correa, "we are going to bring Kuhn back to New York and put him on trial for his citizenship, along with 29 other members and leaders of the German-American bund."

'Canes Begin Drills For Mt. Lebanon Game Here On Friday Night

Visitors Among Favorites To Garner Class AA WPIAL Championship

SECOND TEAM TIPS THIRD OUTFIT AGAIN

Their date book showing a Class AA WPIAL engagement with unbeaten Mt. Lebanon High here Friday night at eight, New Castle High's gridsters went through a brisk workout yesterday afternoon at Taggart stadium.

Coach Bridenbaugh and his undefeated varsity men chatted freely about the Washington game played the night before. Mistakes committed in the fifth winning tussle of the year were discussed.

The foxy mentor then stressed the importance of Friday's date. He pointed out that the task is unusually stiff because the boys will be playing two major games in five days. He used a lot of superlatives regarding the visitors' team.

Following a short signal drill the 'Canes filed into the shower room.

Tough Defensive Club

Mt. Lebanon, sporting a clean slate, ranks as one of the toughest defensive aggregations in the district. After polishing off Westinghouse, 14-0, the 'Mounties' slaughtered Monongahela, 32-0, in their last contest. Tom Laboon, Lang and Gemmers led the attack.

The invaders will come here well rested. Last week's battle with Oliver High was postponed until next month. As a result, the 'Mounties', one of the favorites to cop the class AA WPIAL toga, will be in top form.

Mr. Lebanon boasts of a big, rugged outfit. The Leucht-coached machine favors a double wing, much like Washington High. The visitors, however, do strike from a single wing formation, too, thus injecting more deception into their offense. Ticket Manager Robert Mills today predicted one of the biggest crowds of the season, offering the comment after checking on the advance sale. Pasteboards are on sale at The Sporting Goods Store, 105 North Mercer street.

The game starts at eight. Literally tossing the book at their foes, the second team yesterday smothered the third stringers under a pile of five touchdowns.

The weekly setto between the 'Canes' and 'scribbles' was loaded with action, as usual.

STATE WILL BATTLE COLGATE SATURDAY

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 21.—Penn State can now call on a pair of Joes to aid its football cause.

Against Bucknell and Lehigh, State's first two opponents, it was Jerry Joe, freshman from New Derry, who starred for the Nittany Lions. In the Cornell game Saturday it was another yearling, Joe Colone, from Berwick, who turned in a great punting exhibition.

Against Colgate this Saturday Coach Bob Higgins predicted that the Lions may need even more than his two outstanding freshman backs Joe and Joe. State plays host to Colgate.

Gridiron Giants Expected To Win

Followers Of Dizzy Sport Preparing For Another Big Dish Saturday

By JACK MAHON

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The giants of the weirdest football season in many years should rumble on their unbeaten way this week-end, if their power and past performances mean anything. Since these mean just about as much as those marvelous treaties our statesmen scribbled with the Italian, the Huns et al after World War I, however, you can bet more heads will fall on Saturday.

Army, Ohio State, Illinois, Alabama, Boston College, Santa Clara, Georgia, Texas Christian and Syracuse are the Mr. Big's of the gridiron at the moment and all of them, with the possible exception of Illinois and Santa Clara will be favored this week-end.

So don't be surprised, at all, if the Illini and the Broncos are the only two winners! That's the formula this year—become a favorite, preferably a top-heavy one—and you're licked before the first whistle blows!

In the east Army will meet the well-regarded but so far disappointing Harvard team at Cambridge and Syracuse will be highly favored over Cornell at Ithaca. Boston College shouldn't have too much trouble with Wake Forest, but remember what's happened to teams that didn't expect trouble so far. The Iowa Seahawks, to mention one notable example.

State Risks Record

Out in the tall corn country Ohio State will risk a Big Nine lead against three-beaten Northwestern while Illinois, the most rejuvenated club in the circuit, will tackle Notre Dame's rebounding Ramblers.

Alabama and Georgia, whose meeting in two weeks should decide the winner of the Southeastern Conference title, will meet Kentucky and University of Cincinnati respectively. Georgia Tech, another unbeaten outfit we overlooked a moment ago, will entertain Navy and the odds on this one will be close as the final score figures to be.

Down in the Panhandle country Texas Christian, winner of four straight, will hit the road for Florida to meet the Pensacola naval eleven, while on the west coast, Santa Clara will meet the highly regarded U. C. L. A. eleven.

If the favorites should happen to stand up for once—and this may be their week—there shouldn't be any appreciable change in the leadership of the various conference races. Michigan, winner of its only Big Nine start, will meet Minnesota in the southeastern, Florida and Mississippi State rates a toss-up and L. S. U., the other club with a current share in the lead, plays non-conference Georgia Pre-Flight.

In the southwest, Rice, which hasn't played a league game, will meet Texas, victor in its only conference brawl last week-end while in the far west Southern California plays Stanford and Washington's Huskies will meet California.

The Big Six has its busiest day of the season with all rivals clashing. Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma are now tied for the lead. Missouri will meet Iowa State. Nebraska plays Oklahoma and Kansas will face Kansas State. Here at least no matter what happens the standing of the clubs will have to be revised.

There you have them. Now pick 'em!

DOES ITS BID

The little Charles Town race track, in its all-out relief program, has made $100,000 for Army and Navy.

PROMOTED SOON

Ray Flanagan, pitching star of the Baltimore Orioles, received his high school diploma in his second season with the club.

Penn State Cancels Navy Junior Tussle

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 21.—The effect of the war on Penn State's intercollegiate sports program was revealed again here today by an announcement that the Nittany Lions have been forced to cancel a junior varsity football game scheduled with Navy at Annapolis next Friday.

Neil M. Fleming, State's graduate manager of athletics, stated that it was becoming increasingly difficult to secure transportation for traveling athletic teams and that it may be necessary to cancel many junior varsity events in order to maintain varsity schedules.

Earlier this fall Penn State abandoned all freshman schedules, and the cancellation of a number of fall athletic events was announced last week including a varsity soccer game with the University of Maryland.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

Wednesday "p.m." reel:—

One third of the teams still in the running for the Class AA WPIAL emerald will strut their stuff on two county gridiron Friday night. The conflicts involve New Castle-Mt. Lebanon at Taggart stadium and Aliquippa-Ellwood City on Lincoln field. . . .

In the event that both clashes end in ties, New Castle, Mt. Lebanon and the Quips can start to look forward to next season's race. Altoona, Johnstown, Connellsville, Rochester, Clairton and Wilkensburg are the other half dozen eligible.

Chief Petty Officer Nick Uram, a recent visitor here. . . . Nick Lucas, well known sportsman and a main guy in the rise of the St. George basketball team, leaves today for Uncle Sam's Navy. . . .

To Seaman Brinley Whiteside, U. S. Naval Training school, Urbana, Illinois: New Castle high defeated Massillon in football, 7-0, back in 1937. . . . Aliquippa high watched New Castle-Washington unfurl that nerve pinner Monday. The Quips were guests of the "Little Presidents." . . .

Out of its top attraction thus far, Notre Dame Saturday lost a crunky wad. During the process of drawing up prices for games last spring, Irish moguls learned that the Iowa Seahawks had nothing and would be the easiest game on the card. . . .

To insure a gallery of at least a couple of thousand, N. D. slashed a full dollar under the usual scale for college games. The Seahawks invaded South Bend with a perfect slate and lured over 30,000 persons who witnessed the top tussle of the day at a bargain!

Frank Leahy is the third Notre Dame coach driven to Mayo Clinic. Knute Rockne was sent to the Rochester institution in 1929 and "Hunk" Anderson followed in '32. . . . Tulane university continues winning on one Saturday and losing on the same day of the following week.

Duke U. Is Next Pitt Panther Foe

Southerners Invade Pittsburgh Saturday; Duke Is Red-Hot

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—Right back where they started from a chastened group of Pitt footballers plunged right into a long Monday workout following their defeat at the hands of Indiana last Saturday.

With Duke, suddenly back into the limelight as a result of its win over Colgate, coming up, the coaches wasted little time in talking over the various mistakes made in the Indiana game, with the exception of caustic comments on the tackling. Scout Nick Kliskey, back from reporting on the Blue Devils, wasn't so happy in his report. Up until Saturday he sort of hoped the Duke report would be more cheerful, that the Pitts would be up against a losing team for a change.

Stetler Hurt
The Panthers came out of the Indiana game in only fair condition. Jackie Stetler, rugged right half, finally was unable to take his place in the starting lineup on Monday. Should he be unable to start, which is unlikely, Angelo Caracci, a sophomore 165 pounder, will take over.

There were no immediate lineup changes, but there were some promised. The ragged play of the line and the poor defensive work of the backfield may force the coaches to shove new blood into action.

The game will be the sixth meeting between the two schools since the series was resumed in 1937. Pitt won in 1937 and 1939, Duke in 1938, 1940 and 1941. The first meeting, back in 1929, went to Pitt, so this game gives Pitt a chance to even the modern series, and also will be the rubber contest in the all-time series.

Alsab-Shut Out To Race Today

Top Horses Will Vie In Jamaica $15,000 Closing Day Handicap

By JACK MAHON

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A little race that figured to prove nothing more than a moderately interesting closing day feature has boomed over night into one of the most important events of the American turf year and today, as the curtain comes down at Jamaica, Alsab and Shut Out, the country's outstanding three-year-olds, will meet in a race for the championship of their racing division.

The race, a $15,000 added Gallant Fox handicap, was to be featured by the return to action of Shut Out, the Greentree stable's Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes champion. Suddenly with no advance warning, Trainer Sarge Swenke dropped the Sab's name into the entry box and over night local turf fans were assured one of the most thrilling duels in this hectic turf year.

Alsab and his most serious rival for "horse of the year" honors will carry top weight of 124 pounds in the mile and five-eighths test, while the rest of the field may consist of Bolingbroke, 113; Croydon, a stablemate of Shut Out, 109; Marriage, 121; Paul Pry, 95; Dark Discovery, 100, and Trierarch, 105.

THIRTEEN NO JINX

Who said 13 was unlucky? Arrangements for the North Carolinamade a Homecoming at Chapel Hill were closed on the 13th. Duquesne ranked No. 13 in the Associated Press national poll that day, and Carolina had 13 lettermen.

SIMONS 25TH COACH

Claude "Little Monk" Simons, Jr., is the 25th head coach of the Tulane Green Wave.

Private Moran Meets Shelton

Local Amateur Fighter Makes Last Showing Here Next Week

AMATEUR ALL-STAR BATTLES ARRANGED

Gloves will fly next Wednesday night in The Arena in what will be the first local indoor amateur fist show of the season and quite an array of talent has been scheduled. It will mark the last bout of Private Frankie Moran before his hometown because the day following he will go to camp. He was sworn into the army last week. His opponent will be the classy Billy Shelton of Pittsburgh. They will weigh in at 135.

Baby Face Leasure of this city will tackle an experienced and rugged opponent in Nick Wargo, once reputedly the best lightweight in amateur ranks in the United States. Leasure has been boxing consistently and hopes to step up the ladder by beating his older opponent.

Roy Crews beat Russell Baxter so did Chris Tabor. Further, Tabor beat Frankie Genaro, hence Crews of Ellwood City, has been matched with the snappy Tabor of Niles. This should prove a spectacular fight.

The Nuph brothers and Frankie Dombrowski of Pulaski will comprise a trio that hopes to put Pulaski on the map. Raeburn Nuph will box Nate Hardee of Aliquippa. Chuck Nuph will fight Frankie Muche of Niles and Dombrowski will scrap with Bill Bradley of Mahoningtown.

Albie Bowie, Aliquippa star will fight Frankie Cordy of Niles and this, like several of the other scraps should be filled with gloves. Only one more bout is to be arranged by the Jefferson A. C.

Three Crucial Tilts Billed Here Friday

There is considerable importance attached to this week's local football program.

The outcome of three of the four tussles will have an influential bearing on the torrid Class AA WPIAL title fight and the Lawrence county Class B derby.

The county engagement pairs Shenango Township and Union Township high on Shenango field Friday afternoon starting at 2:15 o'clock. The East New Castle eleven must defeat the Scotland Lancers or else relinquish its local title hopes.

Shenango Favored
Set back in its opener, Shenango has defeated Zelenople, tied Hope and spilled Freedom. Union has suffered setbacks administered by Ellwood City, Greenville, Evans City, Bessemer and Zelenople. On paper, Shenango is favored to win Lawrence county draws two of the main double A WPIAL contests on Friday night.

Under the lights of Taggart stadium, New Castle high's unbeaten machine battles Mt. Lebanon high's classy eleven. The rivals are among the nine teams still in the running for the crown.

At Ellwood City, Aliquippa, unbeaten and one of the favorites to nab the bunting, performs against Ellwood City high's potent combination at Lincoln field on Friday night. A "Wolfvine" conquest will eliminate the Quips from the scramble.

Saturday afternoon Westminster hopes to get back on the winning side of the road in its home engagement with Bethany College. Bessemer high is on the idle list.

Line Up Bands For Big Parade

Armistice Day Preparedness
Observance Committee
Meets Monday
Evening

PLANS FURTHERED FOR CELEBRATION

Members of the general committee in charge of the Armistice Day Preparedness celebration, which will take place here on November 11, met in the rooms of Neshamock Post No. 215, V. F. W., when plans for the coming observance were furthered.

Chairman Arnold Barnsley, of the band committee, reported that definite assurances have been received from seven bands in the county that they will be present for the huge parade, which is expected to be one of the largest held in many years. The bands already secured are those of the Senior high school, American Legion, Junior High school, Croton, Bessemer, Mt. Jackson and Union High school, with several others yet to hear from.

Chairman L. B. Round of the Office of Civilian Defense, was present and assured the committee that all O. C. D. units in the county would take part in the parade, this group in itself being a large one.

It was voted to invite the Junior Commandos, who have been doing a splendid job in the Defense program of the county, to participate in the parade also.

Vice Chairman Orville Potter presided in the absence of general Chairman Chas. C. Sweeney. Another meeting was arranged for next Monday evening.
